- KIMBERLY TRUEMAN -

Feldman, Kramer and Monaco, P.C.

Kimberly Trueman is an estate planning and elder law attorney. Kimberly received her bachelor's degree in Hispanic literature and language from SUNY at Stony Brook in 2009 where she graduated summa cum laude, Phi Beta Kappa, and was the valedictorian of her department. She then received her Juris Doctor from Hofstra University, School of Law in 2012.

While attending law school, Kimberly was the recipient of the Honors Scholarship for academic excellence as well as the Linda Carmody-Roberts Scholarship for her commitment to pursuing a career in the Trust & Estates and Elder Law fields. Due to her excellence in dispute resolution and family law, Kimberly was invited to join Hofstra's Mediation Clinic where she became a certified mediator and was awarded the Sari M. Friedman Endowed Scholarship award for excellence in family law.

Kimberly has been named as a Rising Star Attorney by "Super Lawyers" for eight consecutive years. Super Lawyers, published in the New York Times Magazine, is a listing of outstanding lawyers from more than 70 practice areas who have attained a high degree of peer recognition and professional achievement in their respective fields. Each year, no more than 5 percent of the lawyers in the state receive this honor.

Kimberly was honored as an "Outstanding Woman in Law" by Hofstra University School of Law Center in 2021. In 2022, she was selected as one of the "40 under 40" professionals by Long Island Business News and was a 2024 recipient of the NY Metro Top Attorneys in the NY Metro Area award. She also received the honor of "Best Lawyers"; One to Watch in the area of Elder Law in 2024 and 2025.

Kimberly, a Long Island native, moved to Rochester, New York in 2023 with her family where she continues her dedication to estate planning and elder law. She is an active member of the Monroe County Bar Association and New York Bar Association where she is a member of the Trusts and Estates and Elder Law Committees.
