

WORKERS' COMPENSATION

WORK INJURY CLAIM FORM

1 WORKER'S DETAILS

Title Family name

Given names

Other known or previous legal names eg. Maiden names

Date of birth Gender Male ☐ Female ☐

Residential street address

Suburb

State Postcode

Postal address for correspondence

Claim no.

What are your daytime contact phone number/s?
Mobile Phone Home

E-mail address

If you need an interpreter, what language do you speak?

Do you have special communication needs because of disability?
eg. Hearing or vision impairment

These questions are required for NSW claims POLICE/FIREFIGHTER/
PARAMEDIC ONLY

Do you support a partner? ☐ Yes ☐ No

If yes, what were their average gross weekly earnings over 3 months?

Do you support any children under 18 or full-time students? ☐ Yes ☐ No

If yes, please provide the date of birth:

2 INCIDENT & WORKER'S INJURY DETAILS

What is your injury/condition, and which parts of your body are affected?

If you did not report the injury/condition, or there was a delay, please explain why

WORKERS' COMPENSATION LEGAL SUPPORT

PEF members can take advantage of legal support for their workers' compensation claims with the assistance of several qualified providers who specialize in the area of Workers' Compensation Law.

WORKERS' COMPENSATION

Workers' compensation is insurance that provides cash benefits and/or medical care for workers who are injured or become ill as a direct result of their job. Employers pay for this insurance and shall not require the employee to contribute to the cost of compensation.

Weekly cash benefits and medical care are paid by the employer's insurance carrier, as directed by the Workers' Compensation Board. The Workers' Compensation Board is a state agency that processes the claims. A claim is paid if the employer or insurance carrier agrees that the injury or illness is work-related. If the employer or insurance carrier disputes the claim, no cash benefits are paid until the workers' compensation law judge decides who is right.

SELECTING A WORKERS' COMPENSATION ATTORNEY/FIRM

There are certain traits and characteristics to consider when you search for a firm and conduct an initial consultation, such as:

1. Years of experience handling workers' compensation claims
2. Years of experience handling other work injury claims
3. Success rate and prior case results
4. Client satisfaction and recommendations
5. Ability to handle your claim efficiently
6. Availability to talk to your representative when you have questions
7. Methods of communication preferred by the firm/lawyer
8. Law firm staff and resources
9. Geographic proximity and local familiarity
10. Comfort level and personal connection with the firm/lawyer

QUALIFIED PROVIDERS OF WORKERS' COMPENSATION LEGAL ASSISTANCE

When you need to seek compensation for a work injury, your choice of legal representation matters. So, it makes sense to hire one of the best workers' compensation lawyers you can find. But finding an experienced lawyer can be difficult—especially when you don't have much time.

If you are looking for a qualified legal firm that specializes in the area of workers' compensation law, visit pefmbp.com. PEF MBP has identified several law firms who are interested in supporting PEF members with their workers' compensation claims.

You may also call PEF MBP directly at (800) 767-1840 or (518) 785-1900, ext. 243, to obtain the names of the firms and phone numbers to call for more information.

Find workers' compensation firms ready to help with your claim.

MEMBERSHIP
BENEFITS PROGRAM

10 Airline Drive | Suite 101 | Albany, NY 12205 | pefmbp.com
(800) 767-1840 | (518) 785-1900, ext. 243

5,000 6/2023