- DAVID A. BONINGTON -

Stacey Braun Associates, Inc.

David Bonington joined Stacey Braun Associates, Inc. as a Financial Planner in early 2018. The majority of his more than 25 years of prior experience involved work in complex corporate turnarounds and revitalizations as a banker, interim manager, and financial advisor. This work shaped a skill set which combines facility in planning, forecasting, and financial strategies with sensitivity and responsiveness to client needs and objectives.

Mr. Bonington holds both an undergraduate degree and an MBA (Finance) from Columbia University. He successfully completed requisite coursework in Financial Planning at New York University and passed the CFP® Examination in 2016.

David also teaches courses in Finance and Accounting at New York University, Mercy College, and Westchester Community College.

He has been a volunteer at Children's Village in Dobbs Ferry, NY since 2011, and is part of a committee which assists United Way of Westchester-Putnam evaluate grants to programs centered on education and financial literacy. He resides in Chappaqua, NY.
